

03/20/2012 / 10:00 AM

myStyle Q&A: AnnaLynne McCord

The 90210 star filled us in on what she's loving these days in terms of fashion and beauty during the Drawing Hope International Masquerade Gala, where she was honored with the Heart of Hope Award for her work with Somaly Mam Foundation, an organization against sex trafficking.

WHAT SHE'S STYLIN': My dress is by Cynthia Vincent. I got it at a little boutique in Park City, Utah, at Sundance. My shoes are YSL. My necklace is Karen McClintock—it's beautiful with all the crystals! My boyfriend [Dominic Purcell] said, "Honey, this is such a stunning look on you, with your hair back off your face!" That's why I decided to rock this look. It's totally different than what I'm used to.

SUPPORTING SURVIVORS: I spoke to Drawing Hope at length while ago about working with my organization in Cambodia, Somaly Mam. We're bringing the community together to encourage abuse victims out of isolation.

GLOWING GAL: I've been using a really cool skincare line by Jan Marini. It's all about glycolic. I love it! I stopped using scrubs; oftentimes, they'll actually tear your skin. Glycolic is an amazing exfoliator. It gets rid of dead skin cells. It gives you that glowy look without the related content

ANDREA: THAT DOG WHISPERER WAS A LITTLE OUT THERE!

SARAH: GIULIANA HAS NOT LOST HER "MOM-JO"

CHICAGOLOUS RESOURCES: "MAKEUP SHAKEUP"

TIA & TAMERA'S GLUTEN-FREE CUPCAKE FIASCO

“ I've been using a really cool skincare line by Jan Marini. It's all about glycolic. I love it! I stopped using scrubs; oftentimes, they'll actually tear your skin. Glycolic is an amazing exfoliator. It gets rid of dead skin cells. It gives you that glowy look without the scrubby feel. ”